WHITE DESERT & ANTARCTICA

For centuries, the Last Continent has held a special place in our imaginations, yet even now, long after the first explorers reached the South Pole, access to the interior of Antarctica is still only for the very few.

After a five-hour flight from Cape Town, South Africa, we bring you into the heart of Antarctica, a place that is both surreal and majestic. From iridescent ice tunnels to vertical spires of rock, from endless uninhabited horizons to oceans scattered with icebergs, this is a place unlike anywhere else on Planet Earth.

Established 17 years ago by record-breaking polar explorers, White Desert offers you an environmentally-conscious choice for luxury and adventure, sensitive to the incredible environment and animals that surround us.

Come with us on an unforgettable journey. Come explore.

WOLF'S FANG RUNWAY

Our runway is overlooked by one of the most magnificent and iconic mountains on the entire continent, named 'Wolf's Fang' by the early Norwegian explorers. After landing on the ancient blue ice, you will be surrounded by massive monoliths of rock that rise vertically from the glacier.

As part of our responsibility towards conserving Antarctica, all emissions from our operations, including all flights to, from and within the continent, are offset by fully-accredited carbon-neutral schemes.

The image is a composite of two photographs. The left side shows a rugged, dark brown rock formation in the foreground, with a snow-covered sea stack in the background under a cloudy sky. The right side shows a view through a natural rock archway, looking out over a vast, blue sea towards a range of jagged, snow-capped mountains under a bright sky. A thin white horizontal line runs across the middle of the image, with a small white dot at its center.

Mess tent

Wolf's Fang camp is made up of 6 guest sleeping tents, a large communal tent and a newly-refurbished wash room facility. All guest areas are heated for your comfort.

The communal tent with adjoining kitchen houses a cosy lounge with rich leather finishes and a dining room where guests are served all meals. Our chef prepares freshly baked bread every morning before the day's activities and each dinner is signed off with a night cap of your choice.

Ice bar

Our Basler BT-67s are updated conversions of the DC-3, specially equipped with the latest avionics and skis for landing on snow and ice.

EMPEROR PENGUIN COLONY

Your visit to the penguins begins with a 2.5-hour flight to Atka Bay, the site of the first episode of Sir David Attenborough's groundbreaking documentary Seven Worlds, One Planet. Here you'll see over 14,000 breeding pairs and their newly-hatched chicks, a spectacle full of noise and energy that is a favourite with wildlife watchers and photographers.

There are so few visitors to this colony that the chicks are unafraid of humans and often waddle close by. Mindful of our responsibility to the Antarctic environment and of IAATO guidelines, we keep at least 5m (16.4ft) from the penguins while taking in all the sights and sounds of this rare wildlife spectacle,

*"What a privilege to witness this wildlife phenomenon.
The Emperor Penguins are almost mystical, it was incredible."
Rina Tham, Author of internationally published Lucky Number 9*

During the long dark winter, the mothers hunt for food while the fathers look after the egg. When spring returns, the egg hatches and the chick sits on its parents' feet to stay warm.

DAILY ACTIVITIES AT WOLF'S FANG

With only 12 guests on each adventure, our professional guides will ensure that you are always safe and well looked-after, and that you get the most out of your time.

Your activities can be as adrenaline-fuelled or relaxed as you like: not keen on climbing, fat biking or abseiling? Then perhaps a picnic followed by a restorative massage would suit. The choice is yours.

Condé Nast
Traveler

"The logistics that support this 12-guest refuge would test a space mission."

Between rugged mountain ranges and spectacular frozen waves of ice, our guides will expand your horizons and push you only as far as you want to go. Our philosophy is simple - do as much or as little as you like. After all, it's your adventure!

"Antarctica, the safest place to visit in 2020 and beyond."

YOUR SAFETY

For all its beauty, Antarctica can be a challenging environment, with low temperatures, strong winds and high altitudes. White Desert believes the best way to protect you is through their staff and they are absolutely uncompromising about the experience and expertise of our people.

All mountain guides have completed the strenuous 5-year UIAGM qualification, while each camp has its own fully-qualified trauma doctor and accompanying medical kits. The chief pilot has 10 years of experience flying in Antarctica with over 18,000 hours of logged flight time.

Tracking, satellite communications and mutual Search & Rescue agreements are all part of White Desert's comprehensive safety policies. Furthermore, by operating their own aircraft, they also have the speed and flexibility to arrange an evacuation back to Cape Town in the unlikely event that one should become necessary.

ENVIRONMENT

White Desert believes that responsible tourism is a genuine force for good and supports Sir David Attenborough's stance on the transformative power of wilderness travel: "No one will protect what they don't care about, and no one will care about what they have never experienced".

Camp - As a temporary eco-camp, their whole operation can be dismantled and removed without a trace.

Carbon neutral - White Desert was the first aviation operator in Antarctica to be entirely Carbon Neutral, a status the company has held since 2007.

Waste management - Waste is kept to a minimum by repackaging all consumables before being brought to Antarctica and then, at the end of the season, shipping all solid waste back to South Africa for recycling or responsible disposal.

FULL ITINERARY

DAY BEFORE DEPARTURE

White Desert will host a safety briefing in Cape Town. This is where we will check all your polar clothing and prepare you for your flight south.

DAY ONE

You fly over thousands of icebergs on our 5-hour flight across the Southern Ocean to Antarctica. During the flight, you enter the Polar Circle and the continuous daylight of the Antarctic summer.

After landing on the specialist ice runway, you will settle in at Wolf's Fang camp.

DAY TWO

Settle into White Desert's 'Wolf's Fang' and do as much or as little as you like each day. Activities range from gentle treks up a nearby Nunatak, ice climbing and even abseiling!

After the day's activities you will hear a talk about the incredible life cycle of the Emperor penguin in preparation for your visit the

DAY THREE

You fly 2.5 hours across Antarctica on our BT-67 aircraft, enjoying immense views of the High Polar Plateau, before landing at the Emperor Penguin colony at Atka Bay.

Wrapped up in the sights and sounds of thousands of penguins, you will be among the very few who have ever witnessed such a spectacle, observing the real-life stars of March of the Penguins.

DAY FOUR

A convoy of Arctic Trucks, and skidoos for the more adventurous, will traverse you across the glacier to the base of the Needle peak, so named as the rock explodes vertically out of the ice. An exciting rope walk has been set up at the base by our guides to help you safely navigate the interest features of rock and ice. Late lunch will be served before the journey back to Wolf's Fang.

DAY FIVE

Today you will enjoy a thrilling skidoo ride across the ice or try your hand at ice-climbing under the expert guidance of UIAGM guides.

With the help of ice axe and crampons, guests will scale walls of ice carved out of the glacier surrounding the Henriksen Nunatak mountains.

DAY SIX

The flight out of Antarctica will be the last of your enduring Antarctic memories before you delve back into the vibrant energy of Africa. You will be transferred to your hotel where you will have a chance to relax and reflect on your Antarctic adventure!

This itinerary is entirely subject to weather conditions in Antarctica and is meant purely as a guide to what guests may expect day by day. The exact sequence of activities and the types of aircraft mentioned in this brochure may vary.
